

To the FCC: I strongly urge you not to allow deregulation of media ownership. The current situation is bad enough: even second-and third-tier media outlets offer the same limited stories and views that the large media giants do, and these reflect the interests of the super rich and large corporations. OUR DEMOCRACY IS IN GRAVE DANGER and if you allow further deregulation, you may very well go down as a group who helped put a nail in its coffin.